Discipline Policy

Simple rules are explained to the class with periodic reminders. The child will be reminded in simple language about the rule he/she is not following. If the child needs to be reminded again that day, a warning will be given that he/she will need to sit in a chair the next time for Time Out. Time out for the child is usually from 3-5 minutes, which comes with the third warning. The teacher will explain clearly why the child needs to have time out. If the child refuses to cooperate with time out, the parent will be contacted immediately. If a child continues misbehaving or is a continual disruption to the everyday classroom experience or is threatening in any way to the other children or teachers, the parents will be called in for a conference. Suggestions will be made as to how to improve this behavior. If improvement is not forthcoming, the child will be dismissed from the program at Immanuel Lutheran Preschool.
